

Day with Glasgow Improvisers Orchestra

Saturday 1st November 2008
11am to 4pm: workshop
7pm: concert

Woodend Barn Arts Centre, Banchory Ab31 5QA

This workshop will explore a number of techniques for facilitating free improvisation including graphic scores, conduction techniques, conventional and non-conventional notation etc.

All these techniques have been used by Glasgow Improvisers Orchestra in their collaborations with visiting musicians such as Evan Parker, Keith Rowe, Barry Guy, George Lewis and Maggie Nicols.

No previous improvisatory experience is necessary. All that is required is the willingness to try out some new ideas.

Participants will take part in the concert at 7pm.

The cost of the workshop is: £15, £5 conc (unemployed, students & under 18s).

For further information, please visit our website at:

www.sound-scotland.co.uk

sound gratefully acknowledges the support of the following: Aberdeen City Council, Aberdeenshire Council, Aberdeen Endowments Trust, Astor of Hever Trust, British Music Information Centre, EventScotland Regional Events Programme, The Hinrichsen Foundation, Hope Scott Trust, Hugh Fraser Foundation, Petro-Canada UK Ltd, PRS Foundation, RVW Trust, Scottish Arts Council and the University of Aberdeen.

PARTICIPATION FORM Day with Glasgow Improvisers Orchestra

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Email: _____

Instrument: _____

Grade (if applicable) _____

Age (if under 18): _____

PLEASE REPLY BEFORE THE 24th OCTOBER 2008 to:
sound

c/o Woodend Barn, Burn O'Bennie, Banchory AB31 5QA 01330 825431
info@sound-scotland.co.uk